

Getting a Grip: How to feel in control when you feel like you're in free-fall

Webinar - 2 April 2020

A portrait of Kate Christiansen, a woman with curly brown hair, smiling and wearing a blue jacket over a white top. She is standing in front of a blue wall with black graffiti.

Kate Christiansen

About Kate: Kate specialises in helping executives re-think complex problems and deal with them differently. She is an award-winning author, speaker and facilitator who has spent 25 years tackling complex problems across the world. Kate helps leaders to unpack and simplify the problems that stand between them and success.

Meet Kate at katechristiansen.com.au

A portrait of Corrinne Armour, a woman with curly blonde hair, smiling and wearing a blue and white patterned jacket over a white top and a red skirt. She is standing in front of a colorful graffiti wall.

Corrinne Armour

About Corrinne: Corrinne is Australia's leading thinker in Fearless Leadership®. Corrinne's written three books on leadership. Having led large teams herself, she understands the competing paradigms of leadership. Speaker, facilitator and coach, she helps senior leadership teams create the conditions for organisational success by forging one team, aligned and fearless.

Meet Corrinne at www.corrinnearmour.com

Picturing the problem

6 Questions to ask

1. What is our purpose?
2. What do our people need from us right now?
3. What are the opportunities?
4. What are the questions in our heads?
5. When we stand back and look, what themes do we see?
6. For each theme, what is the biggest question to be answered now?

Corrinne Armour

0414 742 557

corrinne@corrinnearmour.com

Kate Christiansen

0435 993 648

kate@katechristiansen.com.au